THE SEED OF THE BLESSED AND THE HEAVENLY VISION

...locating yourself in the master plan of God

By Pastor Tunde Bakare

Today, I invite you to behold the seed of the blessed and heavenly vision, the kind of vision that awakens purpose and releases the power of prophecy into your hands. A single word from the Lord has the capacity to clarify your direction, define your assignment, and anchor your identity. When God grants you vision, confusion gives way to certainty and wandering yields to divine focus. Once you lay hold of that word and it takes root in your spirit, nothing can separate you from it. That vision becomes your compass, your conviction, and your authority for the journey ahead.

The Supremacy and Reliability of the Word of God

The Bible declares that "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God" (John 1:1-5). What ultimately distinguishes God as God is the absolute reliability of His word. A liar is exposed by the failure of his word, but God's word is infallible and immutable. There is no one who stands on the word of God, as led by the Spirit, and is ultimately disappointed.

That same Word which existed in the beginning created all things. Scripture affirms that nothing was made without Him. By the word of His power, God created the heavens, the earth, and mankind itself (Psalms 33:6, Hebrews 1:3).

Covenant, Calling, and the Revelation of Destiny

There is a dimension of God reserved for those who are the seed of Abraham. Because of the covenant God entered into with Abraham, He reveals destiny to his seed. God does not expect anyone to fulfil an assignment He has not first revealed (Galatians 1:11-24, Isaiah 65:19).

Before you were released into the earth, a divine will was attached to your name. When you arrive here and locate that will, heaven aligns with earth over your life. You become a person of purpose, direction, and impact—a miracle moving towards manifestation (Matthew 6:10).

The Futility of Success Outside God's Purpose

When a person excels in pursuits disconnected from God's master plan, no matter the wealth accumulated, the fame attained, or the applause received, it carries no eternal weight before God. Until a man finds his place in God's divine blueprint, even celebrated success will produce frustration (Isaiah 65:19-24; 49:1-7).

This truth was fulfilled in the life of Paul, who testified that it pleased God to separate him from his mother's womb (Galatians 1:15-16). When God revealed His vision to Paul, his entire life was redefined.

The Seed of the Blessed of the Lord

Isaiah 65:23 declares that we are "the seed of the blessed of the Lord." As long as a person remains bound to natural lineage and inclination, spiritual identity remains obscured (Galatians 4:29). Scripture further explains that as many as receive Christ are given power to become sons of God—not by natural birth, but by divine adoption (John 1:12). These are the seed Isaiah spoke of.

When God covenanted with Abraham, He promised blessings and

WHO WE ARE

"We are a people sent to the nations, governments and powers of the earth as the voice of reason, possibilities and hope. We are the instrumentality of catalysing change and centralising God in the governance of nations. Our mandate is to enforce the Kingdom of God over the kingdoms of this world that have become the Kingdoms of our Lord and his Christ. We are men and women, boys and girls who love God and love people and who serve God and serve people. We always seek to give hope and to be at the forefront of driving change both spiritually and governmentally. We exist, primarily, as a fully functional church and conceptually as a governmental force for change, good governance and leadership."

multiplication (Genesis 17:2).

Scripture confirms that all who have put on Christ are Abraham's seed and heirs according to the promise (Galatians 3:29). Heirs do not labour to earn their inheritance; provision is already secured by the covenant.

Created to Prosper by Prophetic Design

For five days, God prepared creation before handing it to man on the sixth day. God never intended man to prosper through exhausting toil alone. His design was prosperity through prophetic alignment—the power of spoken destiny (1 Peter 1:18–25).

Peter reveals that the seed by which we are redeemed is the incorruptible word of God. This seed does not fail, fade, or falter. When Isaiah speaks of the seed of the blessed, Peter identifies it as the word spoken over one's life.

Separation from the Natural to the Supernatural

A word was spoken over you before you were born, even before the foundation of the world. You were called, chosen, and ordained. No power of hell can stop you from reaching your divine destination.

When Paul said God separated him from his mother's womb, it meant God unplugged him from the natural and connected him to the supernatural, granting him divine capacity beyond flesh.

By human credentials, Paul was exceptional (Philippians 3:4–6). Yet in Acts 9:1–16, while pursuing his natural expertise, he encountered divine interruption. What appeared to be a mission of destruction became a journey into destiny.

Destiny Speaks Many Languages

Destiny has many languages (Acts 21–22). Paul spoke Hebrew, Greek, and Latin because destiny demanded it. Joseph's dreams could not be fulfilled in Canaan; Egypt was required. Slavery and prison became classrooms for destiny preparation.

Everything you have learnt, even through frustration, will become useful where you are going (Acts 21:37–40, 1 Corinthians 9:19–23).

Cutting the Umbilical Cord of the Natural

Many never encounter Christ clearly because they remain tethered to natural control—parents, relatives, and expectations governing their lives. You cannot declare Jesus as Lord while man controls your destiny from behind the scenes (Acts 22 & 26).

The first step towards destiny is separation from natural domination. You must be willing to offend comfort to obey the calling. Deliverance from the natural precedes alignment with the supernatural.

Obedience to the Heavenly Vision

God reveals vision only to those willing to obey it. Vision demands sacrifice, misunderstanding, and separation. The birth of this ministry required obedience in the face of persecution. Without obedience, destiny remains dormant.

What releases the power of the spoken word over your life is a vision that is divinely revealed and courageously obeyed. When you disconnect from the natural and submit to the heavenly vision, God positions you for supernatural intervention. That is when miracles are born.

Closing Summary

God's word is the foundation of creation, covenant, and destiny. Every life is shaped by a divine purpose established before birth and activated through revelation, obedience, and separation from the natural to the supernatural. True fulfilment is not found in success, status, or human approval, but in alignment with God's master plan. When a person embraces the heavenly vision, submits to the spoken word, and obeys without compromise, destiny is unlocked, preparation finds meaning, and God is
